The Star and Sentinel.

[For the Star and Sentinel.

TO HON. EDWARD MCPHERSON,

ON HIS DEPARTURE FOR EUROPE IN AUGUST, 1869.

A cloud is on my heart,
But you sky is bright and blue;
No matter—ere we part,
Let me speak my warm adieu.

Let me wish you happy times,
While you stem the rolling main—
A pleasant stroll thro' foreign climes,
And safe return again.

Let me wish you good success,
In the object you pursue;
Let me wish you peace and happiness,—
So accept my warm adieu.

And when on England's shore,
Or Italia's sunny strand,
'Mid the wondrous classic lore
Of past ages you may stand:

When on wonders you shall gaze,
With a printer's ardent glow,
When amid the wildering maze
Of Art's triumphant show.

O, remember him who lives
In his old home far away,
Running crooked Railroad lines
Through many a dreary day.

And while Nature's restorer you seek,
And while England's clime you see,
Let then each object gently speak
In your bosom's care for me.

But your sail is set—the breeze
Wakes the ocean's breast of blue—
So I wish you tranquil seas,
And once more a warm adieu.

CHAPTER I.—THE NEIGHBORS.

In a pleasant village in the valley of the Connecticut river, occupying two eminences, somewhat proudly overlooking the business street below, stood the respective residences of Edward Apsley and Patrick McGoln. The former, by virtue of a seat on the Supreme Bench of his State, was called "Judge Apsley," and the latter, having served as aid to a Militia General, on a "Field-day Muster," had received the title of "Colonel," and to hide the foreign association, which in his case was not very distinguished, he wrote his name Macgoln.

STATE TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR.

GEN. JOHN W. GEARY.

JUDGE OF SUPREME COURT

HON. HENRY W. WILLIAMS.

COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Republicans of Adams county, and all favorable to the Administration of President GRANT, the re-election of that tried and faithful public servant, Gen. JOHN W. GEARY, the election of Judge WILLIAMS to the Supreme Bench, and of the complete triumph of the principle of universal freedom and Republican institutions, are requested to assemble at their usual places of holding Delegate elections, on SATURDAY, AUGUST 21, 1869, to select two Delegates from each District to represent them in County Convention, to be held in the Court House, in Gettysburg, on MONDAY, August 23, 1869, at 10 o'clock, A. M., to nominate a County Ticket to be supported at the October Election, and to transact such other business as may come before the Convention.

☞The time for holding the Delegate Elections in all the Districts will be between the hours of 4 and 6 o'clock, P. M., except in the Boroughs of Gettysburg, Littlestown and Berwick, and Huntington township, where they will be held between the hours of 7 and 9 o'clock, P. M.

By order of the County Committee.

E. McGINLEY, Chairman.

Dr. C. HORNER, Sec'y.

THE DELEGATE ELECTIONS.

We hope our Republican friends will not forget the Delegate elections on Saturday. Send good, judicious men to the County Convention on Monday, charged with the duty of selecting first-rate men as candidates to be presented to the people, irrespective of personal preferences or prejudices.—What we want is a ticket, composed of well known men, of tried integrity, and eminent fitness. Such a ticket can be elected. No others can or ought to be.

COUNTY TREASURER.

By the Card of Mr. SAMUEL HERBST, in to-day's paper, it will be seen he announces himself as an independent candidate for County Treasurer. Mr. HERBST has been urged by many of the best men of the County, of both political parties, to take the field. He will make a formidable candidate. Although a tried Republican, he is a gentleman of high character, excellent business qualities, courteous manners, and favorably known all over the county. No better candidate for the office of Treasurer could be presented by either party.

WE hear it rumored that Mr. FELTY was pitched overboard, not because of NEIDICH'S presumed fitness for the office of County Commissioner, nor yet because of any supposed popularity on his part—but because Mr. FELTY was deemed a man of rather independent character, who might be disposed to discharge his official duties, without dictation. The "ring" don't want that class of men in office. NEIDICH was simply used as the agent by which to slaughter FELTY. Well, sometimes very humble instruments are used to accomplish great things. We read that Samson once slew a thousand men with the "jaw-bone of an ass."

THE Treasury statement of the receipts and expenditures of the Government for the quarter ending June 30 shows that the income is enormous and far exceeding the demands upon the Treasury. Although this quarter of the year is not considered the most prolific to the Treasury, the receipts were over one hundred and nine millions from the regular sources of revenue. This is at the rate of over four hundred and thirty-six millions a year. It is a remarkable state of things, and shows the wealth of the country, the patient manner in which the people bear taxation and how freely they pour their money into the Treasury when demanded by the Government.

WE are glad to learn that there are a number of honest Democrats in the county who are dissatisfied with Dr. DILL'S legislative record, and cannot conscientiously give him their support. This opposition manifested itself in the Convention, notwithstanding the rule which concedes two terms to Legislative candidates. ISAAC HERTER, a gentleman of fair character and above suspicion, was named; but Mr. H. refused to allow the use of his name. He would not have been as comfortable in the peculiar atmosphere which envellopes Harrisburg during sessions of the Legislature, as Dr. DILL seems to be. Besides, the Dr. wanted another winter's campaign, and the "ring" which ruled the Convention decreed that he should have it, notwithstanding his suspicious record.—It remains for the people of the county to say whether the mandate of the "ring" shall be gratified, and the Dr's wishes gratified.

FROM all parts of the county we hear of wide-spread disaffection in the Democratic ranks, growing out of the bold defiance of the popular wish by their recent Convention. This defection points most markedly to the offices of Associate Judge, Sheriff, Treasurer, Register, and Commissioner.—We believe there are many Democrats, tired of the peculiar influences which for several years have been dominating their party and controlling their conventions—whereby good men are thrust aside, and party hacks honored with responsible positions; and if the Republican Convention on Monday does its duty and puts in nomination solid men, who can command popular confidence, many honest Democrats will take the opportunity to rebuke the men who aspire to run the Democratic machine, and monopolize the honors and emoluments of office, irrespective of the wishes of the masses.

DANIEL DELAP, of Tyrone, announces himself as an Independent candidate for Clerk of the Courts. He was a candidate before the Democratic Convention, but with others was ruled out by the "ring."

ASA PACKER is one of the wealthiest men in the country. Did he ever lend the Government a cent in the hour of its trouble?

CYRUS L. PERSHING, of Cambria county, was nominated by the Democratic State Convention as their candidate for Judge of the Supreme Court. We believe Mr. Pershing is a man of fair personal character, but what special qualifications he possesses for so responsible a position, would puzzle a Philadelphia lawyer to determine. A seat on the Supreme Bench has always been regarded as one of the most responsible positions in our system of Government, and both parties have been in the habit of taking their candidates from members of the legal profession distinguished for their attainments and large experience. The Supreme Court is the ultimate tribunal of appeal, and has to do with legal determinations of great moment and far reaching consequences. The Republican State Convention presented the name of Hon. H. W. WILLIAMS, of Allegheny county, one of the most prominent lawyers in Western Pennsylvania—with large experience in the trial and conduct of civil and criminal causes, as a member of the Bar and Presiding Judge of the District Court.

How about Mr. Pershing? He served several years in the State Legislature during the War, and was regarded a straightout Democratic partizan.—But has any body ever heard of him as a lawyer? Has he ever conducted a jury trial, unassisted? How many cases has he argued in the Supreme Court? If fitted for the Supreme Bench, he must surely have some legal record.

Packer's $20,000,000, it is well understood, secured his nomination. But what brought about Pershing's?

THE desire to secure a reform in our Legislative machinery, is bringing about some capital nominations in various counties. The Republicans of the Chester and Delaware district, where a nomination is equivalent to an election, have done themselves honor and the State service in nominating as their candidate for State Senator, H. JONES BROOKE, Esq., a gentlemen of high character and sterling integrity. Mr. Brooke will be no novice in Legislative duties. We had the pleasure of his acquaintance more than twenty years ago, as a representative of that district, first in the House, and afterwards in the Senate. Those were the palmy days of legislative life, when honest men filled our legislative halls, content to serve the State on a salary of $300. No man in either House stood fairer than Mr. BROOKE—esteemed for his good judgment and devotion to business, and hence wielding a large influence. He is still in the prime of life, and his return to legislative life will be hailed with pleasure by all who know his eminent fitness and intrinsic worth.

THOMAS V. COOPER, Esq., the junior editor of the Delaware American, has been nominated by the Republicans of Delaware county for the Assembly. This is also a capital nomination and well deserved. Mr. C. will make a good co-laborer with Mr. BROOKE in the work of reform.

THE terrible corruption which has characterized the Legislature of Pennsylvania for several sessions, and the shameless trafficking in votes of members for moneyed consideration, is exciting close scrutiny into the official records of members of the last legislature, all over the State. We are glad to notice that this movement is not confined to Republican districts. We occasionally meet with a Democratic exchange outspoken on the subject.—The only way to break up the infamous system of bribery so dishonoring to the reputation of the State, and so prejudicial to fair legislation, is for honest men of all parties to unite in the demand for the nomination of men of solid worth and tried integrity. If party Conventions insist on nominating men tainted with suspicion, let honest men resolutely black-ball them at the polls. Too many men seek Legislative position for the opportunity which it presents of making money; and nothing will break up the evil, but a combination of good men of all parties to give such characters the privilege of staying at home.

[Communicated.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Judge ZIEGLER, I understand, carried the Borough Delegates to our Convention by a very decided majority. As the Democrats of the Borough, where Judge Ziegler and Mr. McCurdy both live, ought to know which was the best and strongest candidate, how comes it that our Convention set a side the stronger man and took up the weaker candidate? Many Democrats don't understand it.

A DEMOCRAT.

Not being in the secrets of the "ring" which ruled the Democratic Convention we can give no light on the subject. Our correspondent will have to go to his own party leaders for the desired information. The only explanation we have heard of this and othdoings of the Convention, is that the "ring" made up their mind not to be troubled with any men in official position who would be likely to ignore their right to rule the party or might give trouble.

IT seems that a number of persons elected by the Walker Conservatives and Democrats as members of the Virginia Legislature, cannot take the oath prescribed by the Re-construction acts to be administered to officers in the re-constructed States. If enforced by General Canby, the result will be to disqualify a number of members elect and give the Welle Republicans the control of the Legislature. Gen. Canby has no discretion in the premises.—The Walker men, who profess to be thoroughly in accord with Grant's administration, propose to bridge over the difficulty by requesting Gen. Canby to postpone the meeting of the Legislature until December, to give Congress an opportunity to modify the oath. The Wells Republicans, on the other hand, having no confidence in the sincerity of the Walkerites, are urging an early meeting of the Legislature and a prompt application of the test oath. Gen. Canby is consulting with the law officers of the Government.

WASHINGTON despatches says that the President has informed Texas politicians that the Administration will not give its influence to aid their people to full restoration before Congress meets unless they elect persons to office who can take the test oath, choose a Legislature that will promptly ratify the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments to the Constitution, and make laws securing most complete equality and protection to all classes of citizens. The President has not, so far as is known, expressed preference for either Davis or Hamilton as Governor.

IT is not expected that there will be much reduction, if any, in the public debt for the present month, on account of the heavy drafts made on the Treasury Department by the Interior Department to pay pensions. One warrant for this purpose amounted to about $10,000,000.

PACKER AND HIS TAXES.

Carbon county and the borough of Mauch Chunk, during the recent war, contracted a large debt—the county to raise bounties for the army, upon every call for a draft, and the borough to assist in raising its quota. Packer, one of the most prominent men in the county, opposed the war—a desperate struggle for the Union—as well matched troops, on many a fight hills, down deep ravines dealt at both sides, sending flashes of the discharges only visible to the eye, and the numberless mountain echoes beguiling the ear into the belief that there was nothing in earth or air but one incessant and universal fusillade. Enveloped on three sides at once by a corps unaccustomed to be foiled in its spring, Geary, though frequently overborne, held his camp with a tenacity that extorted victory at its established retreat. He met the charging columns with lines of bayonets, and after a three hours conflict, repelled every attack, and drove Longstreet discomfited into the recesses of the mountains.—Downing's Life of Grant.

Packer at that time was making money out of the necessities of the government. He accumulated millions, and now wants to be Governor because he is rich. Geary's camp fires are still burning brightly on every hillside in Pennsylvania. His heart is still as true to the the Union as it was at Wauhatchie. His army is in good spirits, and in October next will win another victory and drive Asa Packer and his crew "discomfited into the recesses of the mountains." "Our soldiers and sailors must be gratefully remembered."—Harrisburg Telegraph.

THE Beaver Radical says the sturdy sons of Pennsylvania will not bow down before the golden image which has been set up before them; they will not fall down and worship Mr. Asa Packer, the GOLDEN CALF of the Democracy.

POLITICAL ITEMS.

SENATOR Warner, of Alabama, says the Republican party in that State is in an excellent condition, and at the recent election elected four out of the six members of Congress, and had a majority of 12,000 on the popular vote.

THE Pennsylvania and Ohio Democrats have both failed in their efforts to secure a respectable soldier to run for them for Governor. The Democratic party ignored the brave soldier during the war and now the tables are turned.

IT is reported that if Packer succeeds in being elected Governor Judge Woodward is to be his Secretary of Commonwealth. The editor of the Tunkhannock Republican says he does not like to venture a prediction at this early day, out of respect to his reputation as a prophet, but hazards little in saying that when Mr. Packer is Governor of this State, some other and more improbable things will happen.

"BRICK" POMEROY, the great apostle of Democracy, says he "would repudiate the national debt in two words if he had the power." Again he says, "we dare urge repudiation, we dare head a mob and batter down the vaults where our masters keep the notes which they say we must pay." This same "Brick" was sent from New York to engineer Packer through the Democratic Convention, and you are asked to support men who hold and endorse the same principles that the uncrupulous Brick has the boldness to advocate through the columns of his paper.

THE Toledo (O.) Blade tells a good story about a Columbus Copperhead, one of the venomous kind, who reeled into the Democratic State Convention just as they were burrahing for Rosecrans. "Wha' d'ye nom'nate Rosecrans for?" inquired this indignant soldier-killer. "Why we had to nominate some one who'd get Republican votes," was the answer. "Then, why'n thunder didn't you nom'nate Hayes? He'll git more 'publican votes than any man, and I'd sooner vote for him." To understand the point, the reader must bear in mind that Gen. Hayes is the Republican candidate for Governor.

How do Democrats like the "great victory" in Tennessee, after Senter's Nashville speech? He emphasized the following in a short address delivered before an immense audience Tuesday evening. "There must be no proscription on account of rebellion, race or COLOR! Suffrage and the fullest political and civil rights must be FREE TO ALL! That "civil rights" means office for the negro; and the election of Senter is hailed as a great Democratic victory. Well may every Irish Democrat exclaim, "Am I? or who am I?"

THE Republicans do not criticise the nomination of Mr. Packer on account of his being worth $20,000,000; the objectionable feature about the proceeding is that it was the $20,000,000 that was nominated. If Mr. Packer's personal merits had secured him the nomination, it would have been all right, but who believes that if he had been a moderately poor man he would have stood any chance of receiving the vote of the Democratic convention. Under the circumstances it is plain to everybody that it was the money bags that won Democratic favor and secured the nomination.

THE nomination of Pendleton in Ohio, in the place of Rosecrans, who declines, spreads despondency over more than his own State. Judge Packer is as much yoked to him as if he ran at his side. Their doctrines being alike, so will be their destiny. And as Rosecrans made way for Pendleton by his declination, and Hancock for Packer by his declination, the two Democratic candidates for Governor of Ohio and Pennsylvania will enjoy the felicity of feeling that their cemeteries were selected by Union generals as their joint graves are being dug by Union soldiers.

"BIRDS OF A FEATHER."—It is a well ascertained fact that Asa Packer deserted the friends of Stepen A. Douglass, at the Charleston Convention in 1860—that he entertained Vallandigham at his own house, during the war, and that he was nominated at Harrisburg, through the influence of such men as Frank Hughes, Alderman M'Mullin and Brick Pomeroy. Vallandigham, Hughes, M'Mullin and Pomeroy! What would be the character of an Administration, influenced and controlled by such men?

THE Cuban revolutionists have at last taken a step towards freeing themselves from Spain by a purchase of the Island, Senor Jose Manuel Macias having been commissioned as an agent of the Patriot Government to treat with the Spanish authorities in reference to the subject. He left New York for Europe on Saturday, and will meet General Prim at some point in France, where negotiations will be entered into concerning the objects of the mission. In connection with the subject it is said that promises were made to the Cubans by Prim some fourteen months since, which are expected to be now fulfilled by the Spanish Government. The Cubans furnished the Spanish revolutionary Junta $1,500,000 in gold to aid in overthrowing Isabella, in return for which Cuba was to be made independent. It is reported that a privateer left a Northern port of the United States a few nights since, destined for the service of the Cubans.

AT an early hour on Saturday morning a northern bound passenger train on the Northern Central Railroad, met with a serious accident while passing over the track of the Schuylkill and Susquehanna Road, nine miles west of Harrisburg. A huge rock had fallen on the track and the engine striking it a general smash of the train was the result. The only persons killed were the engineer, Wesley Stewart, a resident of Baltimore, and the fireman, Lemuel Crisman, a resident of Reading. Several of the passengers were slightly bruised.

HISTORY REPEATS ITSELF.

Longstreet saw indications that our success would relieve Chattanooga from investment. At 1 o'clock, P. M., he sprang upon Geary's flanks, as a tiger falls with the assurance of a tiger. Geary, one of the most determined soldiers of the war—a desperate fighter, a general well matched with Longstreet, a corps unaccustomed to be foiled in its spring, Geary, though frequently overborne, held his camp with a tenacity that extorted victory at its established retreat. A RAMPANT COPPERHEAD.

Brick Pomeroy, who is the acknowledged leader of the Democratic party, and who attended the Democratic Convention at Harrisburg, for the purpose of engineering the nomination of Asa Packer, for Governor, says he "would repudiate the National debt in two seconds if he had the power."—Again he says, "we dare urge repudiation, we dare head a mob and batter down the vaults where our masters keep the notes which they say we must pay."

The only difference between Brick Pomeroy and many other leading lights in the Democratic party, is that Brick is an outspoken, frank partizan who dares to utter just what he thinks, whether popular or unpopular, palatable or unpalatable; while others, who share his opinions, have not the courage to avow them. The National Debt, contracted in the War for the suppression of the Slaveholder's Rebellion, is a legacy of Democratic disloyalty, and a perpetual reminder of Democratic infidelity. The Rebel element in the Democratic party hate it and would repudiate it to-day, if they had the power. Restore the party to power, and Brick Pomeroy's policy will find cordial endorsers in quarters little dreamed of now by the rank and file of the Democracy. The only way to guard against Repudiation and national dishonor, is to keep these men out of office.

THE Copperheads as usual are doing a good deal of "blowing." They are accustomed to "blow" before elections, not often having a chance to do so after elections. Just now they have a good deal to say about Asa Packer's popularity in the Lehigh Valley, and the tremendous poll he is going to make in that region. The Mauch Chunk Gazette, however, throws a damper on these calculations by producing some practical evidences of Asa's strength. It seems that as late as 1861, Asa aspired to the honorable position of Town Councilman, and ran as a candidate on the Democratic ticket. His fellow-citizens didn't appreciate his eminent capacity for executive administration, and declined to elect him. And more—notwithstanding his boasted $20,000,000, and the vast patronage under his control, he ran but two votes above Mr. Dimmick, his Democratic colleague on the same ticket. Here are the figures:

REPUBLICANS.		DEMOCRATS.
Wm. Oliver	163	M. M. Dimmick	114
S. M. Line	164	John Fidler	112
James Lyndman	151	J. Weybenmyer	112
Louis Beckhart	159	Reuben Dewalt	111
Nich. Kremenil	166	Asa Packer	116

This was the last time the "Pride of the Lehigh Valley" gave his fellow citizens a chance to demonstrate his popularity. That was before he made his odious "war record." Failing in the opportunity to illustrate, as Town Councilman, his brilliant administrative capacity, he now aspires to Gubernatorial honors. Andy Johnson can beat Packer's record two to one. It was Andy's boast that he had filled the round of official position, from "Alderman of his native village" to that of President. We don't know that Asa ever tried his chances for Aldermanic honors in his "native village" in Connecticut. His biographer give us no light on that point. Certain it is, that he tried it in the "Lehigh Valley," but didn't win—whether because of his being a "carpet-bagger," or because of of a too lively recollection of that "ducking" in the canal, is also ignored by the historian. We are afraid Asa's chances for getting to Harrisburg are rather slim.

THE Democracy of Philadelphia are evidently preparing the way for a "back down" on the "nigger" question. Last week their City Convention met to revise the standing rules of the party, and after discusion the word "white" was stricken from the draft of their new party constitution by a decided vote. The Democracy of Adams are a little slow on this question, and have determined once more to go into the campaign as a "white man's party."

THE ten dollar counterfeit Greenbacks have appeared in another and decidedly novel form. Treasurer SPINNER, on Monday, received from a town in the interior of this State one of these suspicious bills. Close examination disclosed the note to be half a counterfeit, being composed of equal portions of a genuine and bogus bill, deftly pasted together.

IF one half of what we hear be true Mr. KLUNK will find his pathway to the Sheriff's office "a hard road to travel." He and his friends were sharp enough to run the Democratic Convention, and slaughter better candidates; but he is likely to find more trouble in running the Democratic machine in the County, with a probability of being himself slaughtered.

SENTER says emphatically that in Tennessee equal civil and political rights shall be guaranteed to all without reference to race or color. Will those who claim his election as a Democratic victory please accept the situation?

"THE POOR MAN'S CANDIDATE."

Asa Packer and the Boatmen—He is Denied in the Lehigh—A Reminiscence of 1842.

Hon. Asa Packer, Democratic candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania is immensely rich. He is said to be worth twenty millions of dollars. It is this great wealth that has given him position and secured him the nomination—as in other respects he is a very ordinary man—not remarkable for talent or distinguished for public services of any sort.

Twenty millions of dollars is a large sum for any one man to accumulate in a life time. It could never have been accumulated by honest labor. In Judge Packer's case his colossal fortune was built upon the sweat of other men's brows, rather than his own. He became rich by grinding the faces of the poor. As a proof of this we propose to refer back to some incidents in his business career which have come to our knowledge from reliable sources.

Twenty-six years ago Asa Packer's business was that of boating on the Lehigh and Delaware canals. He made large contracts to ship coal to New York and Philadelphia. He owned a number of boats himself, and in order to fulfill his contracts hired all the boats and boatmen he could get at so much a ton for transportation. But it seems that this "Poor Man's Candidate" did not pay his men living prices, and a general "strike" of the boatmen employed by him was the consequence. It further appears that while this strike was going on Mr. Packer attempted to break it up by forcing the men to work for him at halfpay. He visited South Easton where the boats were lying moored during the strike, and attempted in person to compel his men to go to work at old rates. But so violent was the feeling against him that he was seized by the men, thrown into the Lehigh, and would have been drowned but for a timely rescue. So exasperated were the boatmen against Packer, that they drove the man who had saved his life from the ground with stones. This incident is well remembered by the old residents of Easton and by all the old boatmen on the Lehigh. They characterize Packer as a hard man—reaping where he had not sown and gathering where he had not strewed. There are hundreds of Democrats in Carbon and adjoining counties who will refuse to vote for him on that account.

The following articles, copied from the Easton Whig, of 1842, gave a short history of the Boatman's Strike on the Lehigh Canal, in that year, against the low wages and low freight policy of Packer and the coal and transportation companies in which he was interested:

[From the Easton Whig of July 14, 1842.]

A STRIKE FOR HIGHER WAGES.

The boatmen engaged in the transportation of coal for the Mauch Chunk and other companies in that region, have tied up their boats at South Easton and refuse to continue in the service until an advance of prices is allowed. Three hundred boats are moored in and near South Easton, and six or eight hundred boatmen and hands have been idling around there for several days. To their credit it must be said that so far they have conducted themselves quietly and orderly. They say the prices now paid for transportation are too low to enable them to support themselves and families, and they are compelled to ask an advance. They have heretofore received 80 cents per ton in good money for transporting to Philadelphia, and they now demand 77 cents and a proportionate advance for all intermediate places.

[From the Easton Whig of August 2, 1842.]

THE LEHIGH BOATMEN.

The excitement created by the large number of boatmen who continue at this place on a strike, rose to quite a threatening aspect on Monday and yesterday, and from all appearances a crisis is near at hand. On Monday morning, Asa Packer, owner of some of the boats,who resides at Mauch Chunk, attempted to move them off when he was seized and thrown into the Lehigh River, and another person who assisted him out was afterwards driven from the grounds with stones. Processes were issued for the apprehension of the leaders, but the officers were not able to apprehend him. Yesterday the Mauch Chunk Company had a conference with a committee of the boatmen, but no arrangement could be effected to remove the unfortunate state of things. The Boatmen, the Companies and the State are sustaining a great loss by the suspension of the coal trade, which has already existed for two or three weeks.

[From the Easton Whig of August 30, 1843.]

After a delay of more than two months the usual activity and bustle of business is again seen along the line of the Mauch Chunk canal. The Companies have agreed to pay the boatmen 10 cents per ton in addition to their former rates of freight, together with their allowance of other minor advantages.

DISTRESSING ACCIDENT.—Last week, a very sad accident happened in Licking Creek township, Fulton county, which cast a gloom over the whole neighborhood.—Two youngmen, sons of Mr. Frank Sipes, of said township, were engaged in hauling bark, and incoming down a hill the youngest, a lad about 11 years of age, was walking beside the wagon, and it is supposed slipped and fell, when the wagon passed over his head, crushing it in and killing the boy instantly. The elder brother, aged about 19 years, was driving and did not know anything of the accident until he had gone some distance, when he looked back and saw his brother lying in the road dead.

THE Drought which is now so seriously affecting the eastern part of Pennsylvania, extends as far south as the Potomac. In the churches of Washington, on Sunday last, prayers for rain were offered. Vegetation of every description is suffering severely in the vicinity of the National Capital, in consequence of hot suns and no moisture. A similar condition of affairs prevails in the agricultural districts bordering the Schuylkill river.

EIGHT MILLIONS PER MONTH.—This is the average reduction of the National Debt since Gen. Grant's administration. The pro rebel politicans can find no loop-hole to undermine this statement. It is, in fact, more potent than all their talk about a change in the financial system.

GET THE BEST.—Farmers who want a first-class GRAIN DRILL, guaranted to work and prove satisfactory, will find just the article they want by calling at the Shop of CHARLES J. SEFTON, in Fairfield, who has the best machine in market.—Give it a trial. If it don't prove satisfactory, it can be returned, and the money refunded. Aug. 13-2t

☞Do you want a nice suit of Summer Clothing, or a cheap Hat or Cap, suited to the season? You will find just at the thin at Capt. Norris' Store, corner of the Diamond and Chambersburg street. The Captain keeps always on hand a full assortment of Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods of latest styles, and sells at moderate prices. He just received a new style of Caps, which are all the rage, and going off like hot buckwheat cakes. Call and see his establishment. tf

☞If you don't want to disgust every body with your offensive breath cure your Catarrh upon which it depends.—$500 reward is offered by the proprietor of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy for a case of Catarrh which he cannot cure. THE LATE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I am not in the habit of writing for newspapers—that is not my occupation; but on the 9th inst., I was in Gettysburg, and having some leisure, as well as curiosity, concluded to drop in and see how the Democratic Convention was progressing—never having had the honor of being present at a gathering of that kind before. When I went in, it was not my intention to remain, but not seeing any of the editors of the "STAR & SENTINEL" present, concluded that it might be well to remain and take a few notes for the outside world.

The Convention being called to order and officers elected, it was announced that the machine was in running order. Delegates were then requested to present their credentials, and after a little private caucusing it was announced that those whose names were called would have the honor of representing their Townships in this august body.

At this stage of the proceedings a committee was appointed to draft resolutions, which were to contain the principles of the once great and glorious Democratic party, and have them ready for reading when called for.

It was now moved that the Convention proceed to nominate candidates for the different offices. The large army of candidates present caused me to tremble, for it looked as though they were about to nominate and elect the entire Democratic party of Adams county to office; but upon inquiring I learned that but one would be selected for each office, and the remaining innumerable herd would be held over until next season, to meet the same fate.

I was surprised—yea! confounded, to see the large number of persons that were urged, yes forced, by their innumerable friends to come forth and receive office. It was moved, seconded and carried that the Convention adjourn for one hour.

Oh! what a memorable hour that was for some! Their hard earned honors, which cost them months of labor, were snatched from them in that short hour. When the Convention adjourned it was generally conceded, that Ziegler, Myers, Beck and Felty would be nominated, and this would likely have been the result, had there been no adjournment. But this did not suit what is known as the Gettysburg "ring" of the Democratic party; and now their work commenced, assisted by the curbstone delegation, which was very large, and together they did their work effectually.

When the Convention met in the afternoon, those who had long faces in the morning were all smiles, and vice versa. Being somewhat surprised, I asked what all this meant? When the reply was made, "the ring has accomplished its end."

The roll was now called, and on motion the Convention proceeded to ballot. Dr. A. B. Dill was nominated with but little opposition; yet from the stir, it was plainly seen all was not right; but I was unable to find out what it was. Can the lower townships tell?

McCurdy was nominated over Ziegler for Associate Judge by a decided majority.—From report I thought this a little strange. Still, as doubtful things are always uncertain, I thought nothing more about it. Next came the terrible conflict for Sheriff. It being conceded that Myers was to be the candidate, I thought the matter would be decided on first ballot, but to my surprise Klunk led off with sixteen to Myers' eight, and on fourth ballot Klunk was nominated. And now it struck me for the first time, that there is a mighty power in a wheel within a wheel. About this time I saw a little man jumping around with considerable more gab than brains, who appeared more than excited. I was about inquiring who this little man was, when my right hand neighbor exclaimed, "Klunk—I heard he would go crazy if he did not receive the nomination. Do you think he would?" I have often seen persons that I thought felt good, but about this time I think Klunk felt "besser" as good. Possibly he felt better than he will on the night of the second Tuesday of October. Time will tell.

It was supposed that Clerk of the Courts lay between Capt. Eicholtz and Conover; but to the surprise of all it was carried off by H. G. Wolf. I have since heard that Eicholtz was shelved to give room for Samuel Swope, who received the nomination for Register and Recorder. Yet it is a settled fact that Mr. Beck had a decided majority of the delegates. If ever a man was cuched with two bowers and the ace in his hand, that man is Beck. It looked very much as if the "little joker" was about. Three years ago Beck came within two votes of getting the nomination, when upon a compromise he was promised it for certain this time; but like many other honest men, he learned when it was too late, that "there is many a slip between the cup and the lip."

Next, W. J. Martin was nominated for County Treasurer. Rumor says the "ring" also played an active part in this farce.

John F. Felty, an honest, upright and intelligent man, it was supposed, would receive the nomination for Commissioner on first ballot; but Eicholtz being shelved, to nominate Swope, and Beck to nominate Neidich, it became necessary to defeat Felty in order to carry out the programme of the "ring." I have also heard it stated upon good Democratic authority that Squire Felty was too good a man to be the Democratic candidate for County Commissioner, that they preferred not having men of that stamp to fill that important position.

Levi Schwartz received the nomination for Director of the Poor. This, I suppose, was all right; he spent his money in advertising that he was a candidate, and of course should have his reward.

Auditor and Coronor were filled up as usual, looking more to location than men.

About this time there was a regular stampede for the door. Some left to congratulate their successful friends; others to console and fix up those who were not successful, which they no doubt learned was no small job; and last, but not least, a large number left to get a drink of rot gut whisky, a large amount of which, I understand, disappeared at the expense of the candidates.

It was also moved that the Convention adjourn; when it was announced by the Chairman that the Committee on Resolutions had not yet reported. After some time some of the members were induced to take their seats, they being the only ones remaining. A set of lengthy and windy resolutions were read, containing those adopted by the Democratic State Convention with a few others; the substance of which is about as follows:

Resolved, That the "nigger" is no human being; 1st, because he is black; 2d, because he don't like the Democratic party. Therefore, this is a "white man government," inherited by him and his children forever.

Resolved, That the Demodratic party don't like to pay revenue tax, but they do like to hold the offices.

Resolved, That the 15th amendment is unconstitutional, (you know they are great on the constitution,) and therefore should not be made part of the constitution.

Resolved, That Packer is rich; Pershing don't know much; and therefore both are fit subjects for Democratic candidates, and should be elected.

The Convention then adjourned sine die, and all hands went and took a big drink.

The Star and Sentinel.

Gettysburg, Friday, August 20, 1869.

Jacob Lott, of Straban township, has raised a fine lot of early Rose Potatoes, one of which weighs 17 ounzes, and another 24 ounzes.

RESUMED PRACTICE.—Dr. H. W. LeFevre has resumed the practice of medicine, in Littlestown, Pa. See his card in another column.

PIC-NIC.—There will be a Pic-Nic in Andrew Clinck's grove near Mummasburg, on Saturday the 28th instant, to which the public are invited. Refreshments will be provided on the grounds.

INCREASED.—The Postoffice Department has increased the pay of Robert Sheads, as mail Route Messenger from Gettysburg to Hanover Junction, from $600 to $800 per annum, from Aug. 15.

STOLEN.—During the balloon ascension in Hanover, last week, a bay mare, belonging to Mr. N. W. Gitt, of Conowago township, Adams county, was stolen from the premises of Mr. Alex. Gitt, of Hanover.

SOLD.—On Saturday last, Washington Chamberlain, Executor of the estate of John Chamberlain, deceased, sold at public sale the two-story brick dwelling on Baltimore street, adjoining residence of John F. McCreary, for $3,800; purchasers William S. Hamilton and George Weaver.

ARRIVED.—A telegram from Mr. Batterson in Mr. Wills announces the arrival at New York of the two remaining statues for the National Monument at this place. They will be forwarded to Gettysburg at once, and we may expect a completion of the monument in the course of a few weeks.

LOST.—Mr. Ephraim Deardorff, of Straban township, on Thursday evening of last week, lost a light leather Pocket Book, containing about $90 in Greenbacks, with some private papers, between his residence and Weigle's Mill. The finder will be liberally rewarded on returning the same to Mr. D., or leaving word at this office.

SPECIAL TRAIN.—There will be a Special Train run on the Gettysburg Railroad on Sunday next, to accommodate persons wishing to attend the Camp Meeting of the A. M. E. Zion Church at Wolf's Woods, near Gettysburg. The train will leave Hanover at 8 o'clock A. M., stopping at all the stations along the road, returning in the evening. Fare for round trip—75 cents from Hanover, 50 cents from Oxford, and 25 cents from Gulden and Granite stations.

TOWNSHIP ELECTIONS.—It must not be forgotten that by the Act of last winter, abolishing Spring elections, the elections for Borough and Township officers will be held on the second Tuesday of October next. By special provision of the Act, there will be no election for Assessor this fall, the Assessor elected last spring holding over till next fall. But all the other Borough and Township officers will be elected in October. The officers to be elected can be printed on one ticket, but must be separated, before voting, into State, Judicial, County, and we suppose Borough or Township officers.

COMING.—The immortal "J. N." writes to us from Cincinnati, under date of Aug. 11, that he expects to be in Gettysburg on Tuesday evening next, the 24th inst., to address our people on the grand mission which has claimed his attention for some years. He claims to have been "recently making visits to and holding peaceful conferences with Gens. Lee and Grant, and has brought them up to the very apex of the sublime and beautiful." Railway officials have also yielded to the pressure, and "by his magical power," J. N. has now the freedom to go and come over every road in the country, carrying light and philosophy into the dark recesses of superstition."

VEGETATION.—The present season has been unusually favorable to vegetable growth. The corn alone, most of which was planted late, has been backward; but with recent rains it has been coming forward rapidly. We have already noticed samples of corn, oats, cabbage, &c., sent into us, and have several additional items now on our table.

James L. Tate, of this place, send a very large Cucumber, measuring 14½ inches in length and 9½ inches in circumference.

George A. Weikert, of Mountpleasant township, sends a stalk of Thimothy, of the Geary standard, which measures 6 feet 3 inches.

William Wood, of Highland township, sends in a large yellow Tomatoe, weighing 2½ pounds.

ACCIDENT.—On last Wednesday morning, Lewis Klunk, son of Mr. Joseph Klunk, of this county, met with a painful accident, on the road leading from Mt. Rock to McSherrystown, near the spot where a brother of his was killed twelve years ago. He was hauling lime, and on the hill at Mr. Samuel Sneeringer's, he dismounted for the purpose of drawing the rubbers, when, by some accident he fell, the wheel of the wagon passing over both his legs, fracturing the fibula of the right leg and the metatarsal bone of the left leg. Dr. George B. Aiken, of McSherrystown, was called in and rendered surgical aid.—Press.

CHANGE.—We understand that the Gettysburg Springs Hotel Company have leased the Hotel to Mr. George Hoffes, of Williamsport, Pa., who will take charge of the Hotel to-morrow, (Saturday.) Dr. Smith, who has been temporarily managing the concern for the company, until arrangements for a lease could be completed, and whose efficient management has been so satisfactory to the guests, retires. We understand that Mr. Hoffes has had considerable experience, as the proprietor of the Herdick House in Williamsport, and other popular Hotels.

ANDERSON TROOP.—A number of officers and privates of the 15th Regiment Pa. Cavalry, known as the "Anderson Troop," met at the Eagle Hotel in this place on Tuesday last, to consult as to the propriety of a formal Re-union. Paul Hersh, of New Oxford, was called to the chair, and Howard Becker and David Sheffer, of York Springs, appointed Secretaries. After an interchange of views, it was unanimously determined to hold a Re-union of the officers and privates of the Regiment in Gettysburg on Wednesday the 20th of October. Messrs. Paul Hersh, Howard Becker, and Joseph Meals were appointed a Committee to make arrangements and correspond with men and officers of the Regiment throughout the State.

ORGINAL STORY.—In consequence of pressing literary engagements by Mrs. Phelps, the series of interesting Biographical Sketches from her pen, which have been appearing in our columns, will be suspended for the present. Mrs. Phelps, however, in the mean time has placed at our disposal an original Story entitled "The Blue Ribbon Society," the first two chapters of which appear in to-day's issue. It is a story of Female Boarding School life—illustrating the value of correct home training, and the triumph of moral principle as contrasted with the misfortunes resulting from defective home education. It is not of the sensational order—Mrs. Phelps never deals in that line of literature. But the story will be read with interest and profit by the thoughtful reader. It will run through some five or six numbers of the "Star and Sentinel."

THE MILITARY RE-UNION.—The Re-Union of officers of the Army of the Potomac, who participated in the Battle of Gettysburg, to come off next week, under the auspices of the Battle-field Memorial Association, promises to be a success. We learn by a telegram to the Associated Press, Gettysburg, August 15, that Major Gen. Slocum has arranged to meet the officers of his old command (12th Corps) on the battle-field of Gettysburg on August 24 and 25. His line embraced Culp's Hill, where acres of forest trees are now dead and dying from the effects of the terrible musketry fire.

Governor Geary, who commanded a division of Slocum's corps, will meet him on the field. Major General Wright, the old 6th Corps commander, will arrive at Gettysburg, via Washington, early in the week.

Major General Newton, commander of the 1st Corps after Reynolds' death, will be present to establish the positions of his command during the second and third days' battles. General Graham, whose command contested so desperately with General Barksdale for possession of the Peach Orchard, and who was so severely wounded and captured on the field, has telegraphed that his staff and line officers will meet him here.

General Ward, whose command opened the second day's engagement at Devil's Den, Major General Ingalls, Generals Buckinson, Tremaine, Lock, Majors Bullard and Long, of staff, will be of the party.

Major General Webb, whose line formed the objective point of Longstreet's famous charge, on the afternoon of the third day, will be present. It is also expected that his father, General J. Watson Webb, will accompany him.

Major General Howard will meet the party from Washington. Col. Bachelder, author of the isometrical drawing of the field, and who is now writing a history of the battle, will also be present on the occasion.

Free travel to all invited officers is secured over the Gettysburg Railroad, the Hanover Branch Railroad, Pennsylvania Railroad, Central Railroad of New Jersey, and the Stonington Steamboat Line, with railroad connections to Boston.

Mr. McConaughy, Secretary of the Association, has received letters from a number of officers announcing their purpose to be present. Among those expected are Maj. Gen. Meade, Maj. Gen. Butterfield, Maj. Gen. Dickinson, Maj. Gen. Ingalls; also of the 1st Corps—Maj. Gen. Newton commanding, Maj. Gen. Robinson, of 3d Division, Gen. Meridith of the Iron Brigade, Gens. Richardson, Dana, and Rowley, Colonels Porter, McFarland, Huidekoper, Coulter, and Mathews. Of the 2d Corps—Maj. Gen. Webb, Generals Lindard and Harrow. 3d Corps—Maj. Gen. Graham, Maj. Gen. Humphreys, Maj. Gen. Ward, Generals Madill, Carr, and Termaine, Majors Benson, Duff, Bullard and Cooney. 5th Corps—Generals Chamberlin, McCandless, Fisher, Crawford, Jackson, Sweitzer and Ricketts. 6th Corps—Generals Shaler, Wright, Collier and Howe; Major Mark. 11th Corps—Gens. Steinwehr, Barlow, Howard, Kane, Green and Colgrove; Col. Asmusser. 12th Corps—Gens. Slocum, Geary, Selfridge, Pardee and Barnum.

The officers will rendezvous at the Gettysburg Springs Hotel, and will be entertained with a banquet during the week. We understand that it is in contemplation to spring decorated arches across the streets, in compliment to the visitors.

We also learn that Gen. Heath, Gen. R. D. Johnston, Maj. Douglass, Maj. Finney, and other Rebel officers, are expected to be present during the week. Gen. Heath commanded Hill's advanced Division in the opening fight on the 1st of July, and was also in the closing fight (Pickett's charge) on the 3rd.

AUGUST CORPORT.—There are an unusual number of petty criminal cases pending in Court, either awaiting trial or the action of the Grand Jury. The time of the Court, however, has been exclusively occupied in the trial of F. Weems Black, indicted for the murder of Thomas Lee, in February last. All Tuesday morning was taken up in getting a Jury, the regular panel being nearly exhausted. As usual in such cases most of the Jurors called had formed or expressed an opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the accused and were set aside. The killing of Lee is admitted by Black, but he claims that it was done accidentally. It will be recollected that Black called Lee from his bed, upon the allegation that chicken-thieves were about the stable. Both went out, Black taking his gun with him. In a few minutes an explosion was heard by the family and Black returned to the house stating that he had shot Lee accidentally, the charge entering the neck and passing upwards into the head, producing instant death. As no person witnessed the shooting, the case rests entirely on Black's statement and surrounding circumstances. The commonwealth has been calling witnesses to show that Black and Lee were on bad terms, had frequent quarrels, that Black had made frequent hostile threats, and that his conduct prior to and subsequent to the killing indicated a premeditated purpose. The case is still on trial, and may occupy the balance of the week. The defence had not opened their case up to the hour at which we go to press. The case being still in progress, we refrain from all comment on the nature of the testimony.

NOT TRUE.—The Compiler continues its insidious assaults upon Mr. Wert, the County Superintendent, and is laboring hard to impair his usefulness by cautioning Democratic Directors against his purposes. In its last issue, Mr. Wert, by implication, is charged with endeavoring, in concert with a canvassing Agent now in the county, "secretly" to effect a change of text-books. We do not understand the motive back of these assaults. Mr. Wert is the County Superintendent, and whether his election was wise or not, he will have to do with School matters in the county for the next three years. He should, while in office, have the same generous support accorded to him, which was given to Mr. Sheely and his predecessors. We believe that Mr. Wert will honestly endeavor to discharge his official duties, and will not permit himself to be coaxed or driven into a partizan relations. In regard to the charge of desiring a change of text-books, we are authorized by Mr. Wert to say that the statements of the Compiler are utterly unfounded so far as they relate to him. As County Superintendent he has nothing to do with text-books, except to give his opinion when desired by Directors. He has uniformly declined to recommend the adoption of any particular text-books, and has had no agency, direct or indirect, in the changes recently made, or in contemplation, by Boards of Directors.

SHARP.—A correspondent communicates to us a sharp transaction, which is said recently to have occurred within a hundred miles of Gettysburg. Mr. A. rented from Mr. B. a tenement for a short period for $10, paying the rent in advance. Shortly after being in possession, a second demand for the rent was made by C., who claimed to be the real owner of the property, and insisted on forking over the rent a second time.—In the meantime C. had been helping himself to some refuse material on the same premises, supposing it was useless, and without the formality of asking A.'s permission. A saw his opportunity—quickly forked over the $10—and then waked up C. by presenting a bill for $20, for material taken from the premises without leave or license. C. demurred—offered $5, then $10, and then $15—but A. was inexorable. Finally C. toed the mark and forked over the $30 with the exclamation—"By heavens! I was never so badly beaten in my life."

THE SHERIFFALTY.

Messrs. Editors:—I am a Democrat and have always voted the Democratic ticket. I cannot, however, vote for Mr. Klunk, our candidate for Sheriff. He is not the kind of a man for that office, and besides he was not the choice of the party. He was nominated in some way over much better men, and there are many Democrats who feel like me. What I want to say is this. If Mr. Samuel Wolf, of Oxford township, will agree to run for Sheriff, he will receive a great many Democratic votes. He made a good County Commissioner. He is an honest man and a clever man, and just the right kind of a man to put in the Sheriff's office. This, I know, is the opinion of many Democrats in this end of the county. HAMILTONBAN.

[☞"Hamiltonban" is not alone in the opinion he expresses, either as the Sheriffalty of Samuel Wolf for the office of Sheriff, on the general desire that he consent to take the office. There is not a better man to be found in the county of Adams—none by which the responsible duties of the Sheriffalty would be more acceptably discharged. But Mr. Wolf is not an office-seeker; nor would it be to his pecuniary interest to neglect his business and accept the Sheriffalty. Should he consent to be a candidate at all, it will only be to yield to the plainly expressed will of the people of the county, and to meet the wishes of a large class of the community whose wishes no man should disregard. We hope he may be induced to do so.]

GETTYSBURG PA., AUG. 16, 1869.

Messrs. Editors:—I notice an article in the "Local" Department of the "Compiler," of August 13th, intitled "Text-Books—A Caution," which seems hitled at myself, as I believe no other agent is now operating in the county for the supplanting of text-books now used, and Mr. Wert. But for one passage, I would not notice it publicly, viz. the charge of operating "secretly." In each township I have presented the books boldly, with recommendations from numerous leading educators, in different states, of whom J. P. Wickersham, State Superintendent of this State, is one. I have also given to teachers and directors the wholesale and introductory rates of our books, and have ever been anxious to exhibit them in public, as well as private. But I must have slighted the author of "A Caution," an error of the head and not of the heart, as I did not know of his having any thing to say in the supplanting of Text Books, neither did I know that to escape a charge of "Secrecy," it was necessary to fee an editor to "blow for us," or get the sanction of "retired officers." Neither did I think there was so little education and judgment among "Democratic Directors," as to demand a "Caution" from their party leaders.

As to Mr. Wert he has neither part nor lot in the matter. He examined most of my Text-Books and pronounced them "worthy of patronage" both "by merit, and economy," which is no more than any honest, charitable man would do, when so convinced. Could we meet Mr. "Caution," and have a chat on the subject of supplanting the Text-Books now in use, we feel confident that he would help us equally as much as Mr. Wert.

Very Respectfully,
J. E. WILLIAMS,
Text-Book Agent.

LECTURES.—Rev. Mr. Burnham, of Philadelphia, lectured in the Court house on Tuesday and Thursday evenings, on the principles and doctrines of the New Jerusalem Church, signified in the "Holy City," in Rev. 21, with an account of the life and spiritual writings of Swedenborg. He will continue these lectures in the same place to-morrow (Saturday) and Sunday evenings This will furnish an opportunity for those who may wish it to learn something of that remarkable church and remarkable man, in themselves so very interesting, and yet so imperfectly understood by the public in general. Seats free. tf

CAUTION.—Extended success in any department of business justly awakens competition, and owing to defective mental and moral structure, often begets envy. Now these are to be expected and may be met with energy and determination; but not unfrequently the bounds of legitimate rivalries are overstepped, and base, unscrupulous men stoop to use the patronage of others to further their nefarious purposes. With the assistance of science, and by means of industry and honesty, in providing a potent remedy, Dr. Steven's Old Standard Tonic Herb Bitters has attained unparalleled celebrity, having been before the public for the last thirty years.

Wherever they have entered the sick or complaining household, their effects have even exceeded expectation, and so far surpassed all we have ever claimed for them by circular, card, or otherwise, that the public confidence in the medical qualities of the Bitters is unbounded. We do not fear the competition of the empirical throng who attempt to palm off remedies upon the people, which are not scientifically compounded, and are destitute of available qualities. Their empiricism will be discovered in the end, and the inefficiency of their preparations found out. We would rather be envied for merited success than despised for failure, however ungeneorus it may be for men either to envy or despise. Against another and a worse class of individuals, we are forced to take action. We allude to those who take advantage of our popularity, and attempt to gain a public favor and confidence by counterfeiting the Old Standard Bitters, barely imitating the label, or making other approaches to its preparation calculated to deceive, and as a matter of course, in so far as they succeed, to bring our excellent Tonic into disrepute. The public are hereby warned against all such imitations. In order to further protect ourselves, and save the afflicted from imposition, we have concluded to change our Label so as ever hereafter to sustain our identity, and keep the reputation of the Old Standard intact. We incur great expense by so doing, but the end warrants the means. The new label along with the caption, directions and test ornamentation, will present an excellent steel portrait of C. H. Kryder, the senior member of the firm. This will be the badge of its genuineness, as well as a guarantee of the quality of the Bitters. The label will be duly copyrighted, and thus placed beyond the reach of counterfeiters. By no fault of ours shall the public confidence ever be abused or the reputation of the "Old Standard" be allowed to suffer. None genuine unless signed.

HARVEST HOME.

BY S. R. RUSSELL.

The harvest is over! let farm bell and church bell,
From valley and hill top, the tidings proclaim,
Till the air shall be laden with notes of thanksgiving,
And the mountain shall echo the good Giver's name.

Throw open the halls of the Farmer's great mansion,
And landlord and labor draw near to the board,
Where fair hands have scattered in tasteful profusion,
The viands the choicest the farm can afford.

And feasting and jest and the half forgot story,
And bumper and song for a season had sway;
For the hands chained to toil are for once liberated,
And hearts, strange to freedom, are free for to-day.

Let the swains, browned with sun, and with hands hard from labor,
To the shadowy groves with the maidens repair,
And bring with them jewels from grain-field and meadow,
To set in the crown that the fairest shall wear.

The wheat plume and oat plume and sweet clover blossom,
And sprays of soft meadow-grass showing between,
Oh, weave them in chaplets, their colors contrasting,
The green with the gold and the gold with the green.

And out of the throng of the brown rustic faces;
Let the maidens choose him who was true to the soil,
Whose courage failed not when the battle was hottest,
Whose hands are the hardest and broadest from toil.

And to him be the choice of the purest and fairest,
And hers be the honor the chaplet to wear;
Oh, tenderly place it upon her fair forehead,
And let it rest lightly upon her dark hair.

And thus clad in beauty, her tresses the shadow,
The oat plume the sunshine, enlivened with green,
Let the woodlands resound, with answering echo
Of "Hail Queen of beauty!" and "Hail Harvest Queen!"

And the dear little children; oh, tell them the tidings;
And let them take turns at the old iron bell,
Till stroke answer stroke, and the spirit of music
Shall mock their sweet laughter from woodland and dell,

Oh, toll it ye bells, till it reaches the city,
Ye quivering wires swift bear it away;
And whisper the word to the indigent millions,
And cheer them with hopes of a happier day.

For the harvest is full, and the great barns are bursting;
Let million of voices the glad news proclaim,
Till the air shall be vocal with songs of thanksgiving,
And the mountain shall echo the good Giver's name.

HOW TO TRANSPLANT TREES.

Nature indicates that most trees, shrubs, and plants will flourish most satisfactorily, endure longer, and be every way better when they send a strong taproot deep into the ground. And this fact is more particularly true when the subsoil is porous, that a long taproot will readily strike downward, as far as the stem grows upward. Were it not a habit of the tree or plant to send down such a taproot, it would be advisable to cut it off. But many nurserymen will persist in cutting this root off at all hazards; because they say that ten roots will push out at the end of the stump where the taproot was severed, which will be more serviceable to the growing plant or tree, than only one taproot.

Those ten roots, it is true, will be more advantageous in sustaining the life of a tree, for two or three years, long enough for sellers to get trees off their hands, and get their money for them, even by warranting every tree to live one year. Most men think if they can make a tree live one year, the difficulty is all over; they may now count on a satisfactory and successful growth. But there never was a principle more erroneous. Every tree needs the advantage of a long taproot, to go down deep into the dry earth, and bring up moisture in dry weather, when the surface roots cannot furnish one drop of water to the growing plant. Therefore, when a tree, or bush, or vine, is transplanted make a deep and large hole with a long crowbar, four feet deep, put the taproot into it, and fill the vacancy with sand. If there is no taproot, bend down a lateral root into the hole, and encourage a taproot to strike deep into the soil. We are seeing the superlative folly, all over our country, in the failure of trees and vines, of all kinds, of cutting off the taproot.

Shrewd nurserymen have hoodwinked and bamboozled farmers long enough, by making them believe that the taproot should be cut off. Nature is a more reliable guide than the instructions of a nurseryman, who can sell more trees and make more money by recommending a practice that is diametrically opposed to Nature's law.—Wood's Household Magazine.

TOMATO CATSUP.—Take ripe tomatoes and scald them just sufficient to allow you to take off the skin; then let them stand for a day, covered with salt, strain them thoroughly to remove the seeds. Then to every two quarts add three ounces of cloves, two of black pepper, two nutmegs, and a verry little Cayenne pepper, with a little salt. Boil the liquor for half an hour, and then let it cool and settle. Add a pint of the best cider vinegar, after which bottle it, corking and sealing it tightly. Keep it always in a cool place.

ANOTHER WAY.—Take one bushel of tomatoes, and boil them until they are soft. Squeeze them through a fine wire sieve, and add—half a gallon of vinegar, one pint and a half of salt, two ounces of cloves, and a quarter of allspice, two ounces of Cayenne pepper, three tablespoonsful of black pepper, five heads of garlic, skinned and separated. Mix together, and boil about three hours, or until reduced to about one half. Then bottle without straining.

A LIQUID glue, far superior to mucilage, may be made by dissolving glue in an equal quantity of strong hot vinegar, adding a fourth of alcohol and a little alum. This will keep any length of time when placed in closed bottles, and will fasten horn, wood, and mother-of-pearl.

SULPHATE of ammonia is largely used in England as a fertilizer on crops of wheat and grass, and with good results. The demand for it for this purpose is growing rapidly. It has also been found very profitable when applied to sugar cane and beet roots.

OATS and Barley may be saved from the ravages of the wire worm, by sowing six bushels of salt to the acre, just as the plants are coming up.

THE WORLD,

DODGES' OHIO AND BUCKEYE

Reapers and Mowers.

A careful examination of these machines will convince any one of their superior merits over all others, in strength, durability, ease of draft, and reliability for work, on all kinds of ground, and in every variety of grass and grain. Confident of this we invite those in want of a good machine to examine for themselves before purchasing elsewhere.

These machines can be sold as Naked Mowers—REAPERS as Hand Rake, Self-Rake, or Dropper—Two different sizes: No. 1 Machine, with two cutter Bars and three Knives cutting five and a half feet in grain and four feet eight inches in grass; No. 2, cutting four feet six inches.

We have that confidence in these machines that we are willing to let those trying a machine test them with any other they may wish, and keep the one that gives most satisfaction. DODGES' AUTOMAN SELF-RAKE has given such general satisfaction that we consider it the best Self-Rake out, and is attached to no other machine except the Dodge Machine, the Ohio and Buckeye pair.

For the benefit of those wanting machines we would refer them to a few of those to whom we have sold the last season, viz:

John Deardorff, Sr., Ephraim Lady, George Lady, Jonathan Wisler, James Mickley, Daniel Battle, John Bogler, John Eckert, Wm. Frey, Cornelius Lott, Wm. Golden, Wm. Rose.

Henry Culp, Henry King, Elisha Pearson, David Stewart, W. Ross White, J. J. Kerr, Andrew Weikert, Wm. Bigham, John Guise, John N. Hoffman, John N. Boyer,

Also, WIRE-TOOTH HAY RAKES, including the celebrated Reversible Extension Self-Gathering Rake. Also, PLOUGHS, SPRING TOOTH HARROWS, CORN SHELLING MILLS, AND OTHER FARM IMPLEMENTS GENERALLY.

Persons wishing to examine machines will find them at the warehouse of JESSE WIBLE & SONS, Gettysburg, Pa., or at the residence of the subscriber, 2 miles from Gettysburg on the Harrisburg road. Persons wanting Circulars will address the subscriber, Gettysburg, Pa.

April 23.—tf WM. WIBLE, Agent.

GET THE BEST!

NISHWITZ'S IMPROVED MOWER AND REAPER.

The strongest, lightest draft, most compact, simple and perfect Machine ever offered to the public.

The undersigned being taken the Agency for Nishwitz's Celebrated Improved Mower and Reaper, invites the attention of the Farmers of Adams county to it, as the very best machine now in market. Its general construction, embracing every necessary point to constitute a perfect machine, is so simple that the most inexperienced person can readily understand it. It consists of a less number of bolts, pieces and parts than any other machine, and is better adapted to all kinds of Reaping and Mowing. A thorough examination and trial will show his beyond all doubt. Farmers desiring to purchase a first class machine, at low price, will do well to call and examine it. Price $125; Reaper Attachment $35.

ALSO—THE

Cucumber Wood Pump,

for Wells, Cisterns, &c.—the best in market—and the stock being made of cucumber wood the taste of the water is not affected.

☞Persons desiring to use the Mower and Reaper, or Pump, can do so by calling at Cress' Warehouse, Gettysburg; Herah's Warehouse, New Oxford, or at the residence of the subscriber in New Salem.

May 14, 1869.—3m* JOSEPH KUNKLE.

STILL AHEAD!

HOFFHEINS'

REAPER & MOWER,

One of the Greatest Machines of the Age,

IS superior to any other Machine now in use, an will sell for less money than will ever be introduced, having been thoroughly tried and given general satisfaction. I would now inform all those who intend purchasing Machines to call and examine for themselves. This Machine is noted particularly to excel all other machines in strength, durability, ease of draft, and reliability of work, in all kinds of grass and grain. Its cute lodged grain admirably, which is a great item in Machines to a farmer. It can be used as a hand rake as well as a self-raker. It cuts 5 feet 2 inches in grain; 4 feet 10 inches in grass; has a steel cutter bar, with wrought iron guards; it can be used as a Single Mower as well as a Combined Machine.

A full trial of the Machine can be had.

Also, SHERMAN'S SELF-DISCHARGING HORSE RAKE, and the great and well-known BRANT RAKE, the best rake now introduced. We would also call your attention to the IRON DOUBLE SHOVEL PLOUGH, wrought iron frame, very light and strong, steel shovels, easily adjusted to run shallow or deep, and is neatly and tastefully made

ALSO, THE KEHLER AND EXCELSIOR FANNING MILL, the old Hamborough Fan improved, for many years a great favorite among the farmers of Pennsylvania. It is large and strong, has two sieves, screens, and warranted to work perfectly.

Also all kinds of FARMING IMPLEMENTS always on hand.

Any person wishing to examine these machines can see them at the Battle-field Hotel, or at my residence, 3 miles from Gettysburg, between the Taneytown road and the Baltimore pike.

GEISER'S PATENT SELF-REGULATING

GRAIN SEPARATOR,

CLEANER AND BAGGER,

With the latest improved Triple-geared Horse Power, either Gear or Belt.

This machine has successfully competed with all the best of the different patented Grain Separators, and now has the reputation of being the best Separator and Cleaner in use; in fact, the only Separator and Cleaner ever before the public to give general satisfaction.

The machine is conveniently arranged for hauling and thrashing, being permanently fixed on two wheels. One man can easily move or shift it about, so that it is not half the trouble on a farm floor as a common thrasher and shaker. It is also easily put in operation. It is simple, easily managed, reliable, durable, compact and cleanly to work by while in operation, not making near the dust as the common machine or other Separators.

Farmers can rest assured that this machine is no humbug, and judging from the high recommendation of farmers that are using them we must come to the conclusion that it is the very machine that farmers want.

The following are a few of the persons who have used this machine, will know, and to whom the public are referred for further information:

Full Instructions and Practical Forms, adapted to Every Kind of Business, and to all the States of the Union.

BY FRANKLIN CHAMBERLIN,

Of the United States Bar.

"There is no book of the kind which will take rank with it for authenticity, intelligence, and completeness."—Springfield (Mass.) Republican.

This is the ONLY NEW BOOK of the kind published for many years. It is prepared by an able PRACTICAL LAWYER, of twenty-five years' experience, and is just what everybody needs for daily use.

It is highly recommended by many eminent Judges, including the Chief Justice and other Judges of Massachusetts, and the Chief Justice and entire Bench of Connecticut.

Sold only by Subscription. AGENTS WANTED EVERYWHERE. Send for Circulars.

O. D. CASE & CO., Publishers, Hartford, Conn.; No. 1 Spruce st., New York; Cincinnati, O.; and Chicago, Ill.

CAUTION.

An old law-book, published many years ago, has just been hastily re-issued as "a new book," without even a suitable revision of its obsolete statements. Do not confound that work with Chamberlin's Law-Book for the People. [July 23-2m

WM. KNABE & CO.,

MANUFACTURERS OF

GRAND, SQUARE AND UPRIGHT

PIANO FORTES,

BALTIMORE, MD.

These instruments have been before the Public for nearly Thirty Years, and upon their excellence alone attained an unprecedented prominence, which pronounces them unequaled. Their combines great power, sweetness and fine singing quality, as well as great purity of intonation, and evenness throughout the entire scale. Their is pliant and elastic, and entirely free from the stiffness found in so many Pianos. In they are unexcelled. Using none but the very best seasoned material, the large capital employed in our business enables us to keep continually an immense stock on hand, at our wholesale

WORKMANSHIP

☞Our SQUARE PIANOS have our New Improved Overstrung Scale and AGRAFFE TREBLE.

We would call special attention to our late improvements in

GRAND PIANOS AND SQUARE GRANDS,

Patented August 16, 1866,

Which bring the Piano nearer perfection than has yet been attained.

Every Piano fully Warranted for Five Years.

☞P. BENTZ, York, Pa., Sole Agent for the above celebrated instruments, is by special arrangements enabled to furnish them at the Very lowest Factory prices.
